Perry was born in Hondo, Texas on November 12, 1948. Although a native Texan, he made Oklahoma his home. He graduated from Hondo High School and was an exceptional athlete. He attended the University of Oklahoma and became one of the original founders of a business known as Sight 'n Sound. He discovered that he could not sit still in retirement and decided to become the Code Enforcement Officer for Slaughterville, Oklahoma. He was a devoted Sooner fan, an avid golfer, and loved to tell stories. Perry was bigger than life in both his physical stature as well as his personality, yet he was the smallest, shortest and youngest of 4 boys. An early childhood with 3 bigger and older brothers made him a fabulous salesman. This trait served him well in adulthood and made him a strong man and a tremendous person. He made friends everywhere he went and left everyone smiling when he left a room. Perry had no children of his own but had many close relatives. He leaves behind a brother and sister-in-law, Tom and Gwen Pichot from Laredo, Texas; 2 sisters-in-law, Laura Stricker Pichot, from Pipe Creek, Texas, and Lupita Pichot from Tennessee; 3 nieces: Glynn Rae Pichot from Flower Mound, Texas, Cindee Pichot from Norman, Oklahoma, and Stephanie Gault from Austin, Texas; a nephew, Kenneth Pichot from San Antonio, Texas; one great-niece, Kayla Brandt from Norman, Oklahoma; 4 great-nephews: Russell Brandt from Flower Mound, Texas, Joshua Gault from Austin, Texas, Justin Gault from Austin, Texas, and Kyle Pichot from San Antonio, Texas; and a step-grandson, Sterling Evers from Mustang, Oklahoma. He also leaves behind many, many cousins and close friends. He was preceded in death by his parents, Charles John (C.J.) Pichot and Alice Ruth Saathoff Pichot; and 2 brothers, Dennis Leon Pichot and Clifton Charles Pichot. Perry will be tremendously missed. Directed By McMahan's Funeral Home of Noble.
